PHILO-RUTLEDGE.

FOR THE ADVERTISER MR. EDITOR :- I propose to address a few questions to the public, and desire an answer from any one who may think proper to give it.

I request your own notice of it. If I am wrong, it is through ignorance, not from bad desire. 1st. Is it lawful to expel all grades of free ne groes from the State, or to sell them as public property? 2nd. If not, can it be made lawful?

3rd. Are they not a pest to society? 4th. Are they not generally too lazy to work for a living?

5th. Are they not commonly an injury to our servants?

6th. Are they not influencing them to mischief and insubordination?

7th. Are not their houses generally places of gross dissipation?

Sth. Do not the slaves live better and fare better than they?

With good intentions, I submit the above questions to you and to the public.

A FARMER.

OVER ONE HUNDRED INDIANS SLAIN .- The Marysvill (California) Herald, of the 15th of July, gives an account of an extensive slaughter of Indians of Pitt River. The battle was fought by Captain B. F. Harvey, and his command of 150 men. There were upwards of seven hundred Indians, more than a hundred of whom were killed, and a large number taken prisoners.

THE RELEASE OF KOSSUTH.-From Constantinople, we learn that it is still believed that Kossuth will be released at the time specified, and that he will arrived at New York in the steam frigate Mississippi. in the month of October. The Russian and Austrian Envoys have ineffectually interposed obstacles to prevent his liberation, and the influence of Sir Stratford Canning is at present in the ascendent. Should Kossuth be released, it is believed that the diplomatic intercourse between Austria and the Porte will be interrupted for a time.

OBITUARY.

DEPARTED this life, in this District, on the 20th August last, Mr. John Stidham.
Mr. Stidam was born in the year 1770, in this State. He united himself to the Baptist Church of Christ in 1791,-was ordained deacon in said Church in the year 1803, and lived an orderly member until his death. He was truly an example of frugality, honesty and industry.

He was attacked by dropsy a few weeks be-fore his death, and though he suffered much in his last illness, he bore it with Christian fortitude ;-was firm in the faith and often expressed his willingness to "depart and be with Christ." He was heard often to repeat the words, "The time is short, the season near," and just before he expired, with animation he exclaimed, "Tho' painful at present 'twill cease before long And then, O how pleasant the conquerer's song.'

This worthy veteran has left behind in this and the State of Georgia, several children, together with many friends and acquaintances to Instructors.

REV. N. ALDRICH, PRINCIPAL. E. B. BACON, PROFESSOR OF MUSIC, DRAW-ING, PAINTING, &c.

MRS. J. MCCLINTOCK, TEACHER IN PRIMA-RY DEPARTMENT.

TIIIS Institution will be opened on the 2d Monday in September next, at the residence of Mrs. McCLINTOCK.

The course of instruction will be the same as is pursued in the first class Female Seminaries in the State, and it will be the constant aim of the Instructors to render the School worthy the patronage of an enlightened public. Strict attention will be paid to the moral training of the Young Ladies under their care, while at the same time all sectarian influence will be scrupulously avoided.

The School will be truly Southern, as the Teachers are not only natives of the State, but also, Southern in all their feelings and habits. It is confidently hoped that the names appended to this notice will be a sufficient guarantee to the qualifications of the Teachers.

The price of Tuition and of Board can be obtained by application to Mrs. McCLINTOCK. It is of great importance that the Scholars be entered at the commencement of the quarter.

EDGEFIELD COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

THE FIRST SESSION commences September 18th.
The Institute building will contain eight

Rooms, all of which are appropriated to purposes of instruction. A fine apparatus; a large collection of Maps; Anatomical Charts, Globes, &c; a Museum of Natural History; a Cabinet of Minerals and Shells; furnish unusual facilities for acquiring a practical knowledge of the different branches of Science. Two new Pianos have been purchased in addition to those already in the Institute.

The course of Study is of an elevated character, and more comprehensive, than that of most female institutions of the highest reputation. The PRINCIPAL devotes the whole of his time to the supervision and instruction of the various classes.

The Assistants are experienced in their different Departments, and those only of known success in teaching are employed.

The Academical year is divided into Sessions of 14 weeks each. It is of great importance that the student be present at the commencement of the Session. The Classes are then formed, and a few weeks delay may affect the standing of the pupil throughout the year.

Tuition is charged but from the time of entrance to the end of the Session. Payments are to be made at the close of each

Unusual facilities are given for a thorough In addition to other improvements, which are now in progress, a large covered playground, for exercise in wet weather, and a gymnasium, are
